Physical Development-

Negotiate obstacles.
Learning to milk a cow using rubber gloves and water.
Creating farm maps
by cutting and sticking, making farm masks

Communication and Language-Listen to the different sounds of animals and imitate these.

Listening to stories and sharing ideas.
Understanding the repetitive language within the stories

Maths-

Subitising, counting, cardinality, composition, comparision, numbers 1-5

Personal Social Emotional Development-

Being me in my world.

Reception

Rosie's Walk By Pat Hutchins, Little Red Hen By Jonathan Allen The Enormous Turnip By Katie Daynes

Understanding the World-

Changes to farming, observing lifecycles, growing cress, observing farm animals and their lives, making our own soups and visiting the farm.

Religious Education-

Why is the word God so important to Christians?

"In the beginning"

Expressive Art and Design-

Making our own breads
using salt dough,
following instructions
to make jam sandwiches.
Painting pictures of farmyard animals,
designing our own chickens. Nursery rhymes

 Literacy-

Talk4Writing story maps and actions.
Looking closely at characters, what they are like/what they say. Understanding preposition and sequencing the story.
Explore language relating to size.

'Down on the Farm ~ Autumn Term 1 ~ 2024 (weeks 4-7)